

Marketing Partners

Contributed by Barbara Mooney
 Tuesday, 05 February 2008
 Last Updated Friday, 08 February 2008

- Office of the Governor State of Texas Economic Development and Tourism - Economic Development and Tourism markets Texas and promotes the opportunities that anyone can find within our borders. Whether permanently relocating a business or simply planning a weekend get-away, our office serves to showcase Texas and facilitate your arrival.

Market Texas Business ensure that state resources are implemented to encourage new business success. Relocating to Texas means adding competitive advantage: proximity to strategic markets including Mexico, excellent infrastructure, skilled workforce and favorable business climate.

- Address: P.O. Box 12428, Austin, TX 78711
- Contact: 512.936.0080
- Website: www.governor.state.tx.us

- US Department of Commerce, US Export Assistance Center - The U.S. Export Assistance Center of the U.S. Department of Commerce is part of the U.S. Foreign Commercial Service, an extensive network of trade specialists located throughout the world devoted to assisting U.S. companies expand their international business presence. With offices in 105 cities throughout the U.S. and in more than 150 cities in 83 countries, we're strategically placed to help U.S. firms realize their export potential.

- Address: 203 South St. Mary's Street, Ste 360, San Antonio, TX 78205
- Contact: 210.228.9878
- Website: www.export.gov

- San Antonio Manufacturers Association - The San Antonio Manufacturers Association works to ensure a brighter future for the San Antonio manufacturing community by being its recognized voice and advocate. SAMA provides collective leadership and resources to the industrial and business community and participates in government at all levels. SAMA promotes the growth and betterment of the San Antonio area and the industrial community.

- Address: 9311 San Pedro, Suite 800, San Antonio, TX 78216
- Contact: 210.979.7530
- Website: www.sama-tx.org

- San Antonio Hispanic Chamber of Commerce - The San Antonio Hispanic Chamber of Commerce is the principal resource and advocate for the growth of Hispanic Businesses in San Antonio. The SAHCC assists small business owners in building their businesses by providing business services, programs, and access to those that will expedite the achievement of their goals. Through our relationships with numerous agencies, the Hispanic Chamber is equipped with insight and knowledge to assist businesses with certification, education, expansion and restructuring.

- Address: 318 West Houston St., Suite 300, San Antonio, TX 78283
- Contact: 210.225.0462
- Website: www.sahcc.org/

- Greater San Antonio Chamber of Commerce - The Greater San Antonio Chamber of Commerce advocates for its members and the business community in building and sustaining a diverse and prosperous economy. For the past 13 years, the Chamber has been the catalyst for economic development in San Antonio and played a key role in creating the San Antonio River Authority, Fiesta San Antonio Commission, San Antonio United Way Fund, Brooks Air Force Base, Kelly Air Force Base, and Randolph Air Force Base among other.

- Address: 602 E. Commerce Street, San Antonio, TX 78205
- Contact: 210.229.2100
- Website: www.sachamber.org

- For Your Information International - FYII is a not-for-profit corporation that, with the cooperation of the International Business Institute, publishes a newsletter periodically, which distributes it to nearly 5000 subscribers. The newsletter shares information about international activities in the Greater Austin area and Texas.

- Website: www.fyiaustin.com

- Federal Association of Business Councils - The US-China Federal Association of Business Councils (UCFABC) is a not-for-profit and non-political organization that is registered in the State of Texas, USA. The organization has its headquarters located in Houston, Texas. Our mission is to promote and develop Sino-US trade and investment activities through better understanding of business environments, cultural traditions, inter-exchanges, communication, and cooperation. UCFABC will fully utilize its broad connections with governments, trade associations, companies and individuals in both China and the United States to serve our members in the following areas: International business forum, trade promotion and mission, special training programs, cultural exchange, public relations, exhibition and business travel, marketing research and consulting, investment and commercial legal consulting, financial and taxation research and consulting, strategic alliance, subsidiary or office setup.

- Website: www.ucfabc.org